

French Spring Break Immersion

On campus

McGill University | Montreal, Quebec, Canada

French Spring Break Immersion is designed to help you improve your French language and communication skills in the beautiful and multicultural city of Montreal.

School of Continuing Studies

École
d'éducation permanente

French Spring Break Immersion

on campus

intensive

24/7
immersion

4
weeks

Dates

February 22 to March 19, 2027

This four-week study abroad program for university students (18+) allows you to experience winter in Montreal, Canada—one of the best student cities in the world. You will stay with a Canadian family and improve your language skills while enjoying Montreal's cultural vibrancy, diverse cuisines, and dynamic city life.

Fees

$5,200 CAD

Fees include:

- Registration
- Placement test
- Student card
- Access to MyCourses LMS and McGill campus libraries
- Tuition, books, and materials
- Blue Cross medical insurance
- Airport pick-up and drop-off
- Homestay, meals, and ground transportation (OPUS card)
- All daytime activities

Note: French Spring Break Immersion is for students who attend under a partnership agreement between the McGill University School of Continuing Studies and their institution or agency.

Key Features

- Daily classes with McGill instructors
- Pronunciation workshops
- Daily practice with conversation partners
- Online placement test before arrival
- Optional day trips to Ottawa and Quebec City

Weekly schedule includes:

- Two hours of classes, Monday to Friday
- Pronunciation clinic included

